- (iii) After successful registration on e-auction platform, the vehicle owner shall have an option to bid for the choice registration mark in any registration marks series of registration authorities of Jammu and Kashmir. The owner of the vehicle shall be restricted to bid for only one choice registration mark for each vehicle.
- (iv) The citizen has provision to choose online, desired registration mark of choice. If the application shows availability of desired registration mark of choice in the RTO/ARTO series, then applicant can select the registration mark of choice and deposit Rs. 1000/- and the reserve price of the number online to reserve the number for e-auction. Once, the applicant successfully makes payment of Rs. 1000/- and the reserve price of the number, the desired registration mark of choice will be blocked from the concerned RTO/ARTO series for the e-auction period. If the number is not allotted to anybody the same will be returned back to RTO/ARTO series.
- (v) After the completion of the online auction process, the highest bidder shall have 10 days to deposit his 100% bid amount through online mode. Otherwise Registration number shall be forfeited and will be available for the Auction again.
- (vi) In case of more than one applicant applying at minimum reserve price and where no further incremental bid is made by any of these applicants, the registration number of choice will be allotted to the first applicant. Further, if there is only one applicant, choice registration number shall be allotted at minimum special registration fee (SRF) mentioned in the notification.
- (vii) After the successful bidder has deposited the 100% bid amount within stipulated period, the e-auction platform shall map the choice registration number with the registration application (chassis number and engine number) at the respective registering authority. Application for e-auction will be processed by the applicant through VAHAN registration application number generated at RTO/ARTO or dealer end.
