* Now Official Gazette.

1. Sub-rule (1) substituted by SRO-439 dated 11th December, 2015. (For earlier amendments see SRO-342 dated 22-07-2013 and SRO-407 dated 18-09-2013).

- (b) The Board/Selection Committee shall, based on the merit obtained by the candidates in written test conducted in terms of clause (a), prepare a merit list of candidates and on the basis of merit obtained by the candidates in the written test, conduct an oral test which may be restricted to five times the number of posts/vacancies advertised.
- (c) The Board/Selection Committee shall prepare a Select List equal to the number of posts/vacancies for which requisition was made by the requisitioning authority on the basis of aggregate merit obtained by candidates in the written test and the oral test conducted in terms of clauses (a) and (b).]

(2) The Board shall prescribe such pro-formae, as are required for reference of vacancies by, and for communicating the select lists, to the requisitioning authorities from time to time.

(3) The respective Selection Committees, while making selections and allocating candidates to various cadres, shall take into account the reservations made from time to time for various categories subject to the provisions of sub-rule (5) of rule 13.

(4) The select list so finalized by the respective Committees shall be equal to the number of vacancies for which requisition was made and recommend it to the requisitioning authority with prior approval of the Board.

(5) The select list shall remain in force for a period of one year from the date the select list is sent to the requisitioning authority :

<sup>1</sup>[Provided that the validity period of one year of the select list of those selectees whose recommendation/selection is kept withheld by the recruiting agency shall be reckoned from the date of release of their recommendation].

(6) The appointing authority, for reasons to be recorded, may not accept the select list received from the Board and return the same to the Board for reconsideration by the respective Selection Committees :

Provided that no such action shall be taken by the appointing authority without prior approval in writing of the Administrative Department.

1. Proviso to sub-rule (5) inserted by SRO-60 dated 02-02-2018.

[(7) The concerned Selection Committees of the Board shall also draw up a waiting list of 50% of the total number of posts advertised, which shall extend to 100% where the number of vacancies is 10 (ten) or less. The Selection Committees shall forward the waiting list, through the Board, to the requisitioning authority for consideration against drop-out vacancies. The waiting list shall remain in force for a period of one year from the date the original selection list is sent to the requisitioning authority. The Selection Committees shall not maintain or recommend any select or waiting list for any future vacancy or any vacancy caused on account of resignation by any selectee after appointment :

Provided that the validity period of one year of the waiting list of those selectees whose recommendation/selection is kept withheld by the recruiting agency shall be reckoned from the date of release of their recommendation.]

(8) The appointing authority shall restrict the appointments to the extent of referred vacancies only and any violation thereof shall subject the officer concerned to disciplinary proceedings and any appointment in excess of the referred vacancies shall not confer any right on such appointee to hold such post.

15. Powers to make regulations.— The Board may, subject to the provisions of the Act and the rules made thereunder, if considered necessary, formulate regulations to provide for the procedure and method for carrying out its functions under these rules :

Provided that such regulations shall be approved by the Government in the General Administration Department before their issuance.

16. Supervision and control of the Board. —(1) The General Administration Department in the Civil Secretariat shall be the Administrative Department of the Service Selection Board for transaction of the business in terms of the Jammu and Kashmir Government Business Rules.

(2) Copies of all proceedings of the Board shall be sent to the General Administration Department which will arrange for such scrutiny thereof as may be necessary from time to time and submit periodical reports to the Government.
